Listed below are potential activities members of the Sons and Daughters organization could help with in the upcoming year. Please review and check -off any categories in which you are interested. Your support can be remote (via email, mail) based on your mobility or other personnel/professional commitments; provided throughout the year or just during surge periods; and/or, optimally, many of you will be able to attend the annual Division reunion/assist in either advance planning or on-site support. If you have other recommendations please add them:

- ___ Help with data base maintenance of various Division personnel rosters
 - ___ Assist with maintenance and annual publishing of membership directory
 - ___ Support publicity and/or public relations activities for the 6th MarDiv
 - ___ Work with local officials in your area to ensure 6th MarDiv vets are honored at local events
 - ___ Assist in continued development/maintenance of the Striking Sixth's web page
 - ___ Help Striking Sixth editor obtain/edit articles in timely manner for the newsletter
 - ___ Assist Div historian in perpetuating the Div's history via research, articles, displays & other conduits
 - ___ Assist with planning, coordination, execution of the many facets of the annual Division reunion
 - ___ Help ensure 100% obtainment of the Division's 18 guidelines for reunion bids and planning
 - ___ Help plan, draw-up a seating arrangement for the annual reunion banquet
 - ___ Help ensure the hotel staff at the reunion executes 6th MarDiv plan
 - ___ Assist the 6th MarDiv with any support required for the reunion's hospitality room and bar
 - ___ Assist in planning entertainment, events for the reunion (on and off site)
 - ___ Help design/obtain the data for reunion programs
 - ___ Help welcome/escort distinguished guests at the reunion
 - ___ Be part of a Sons-Daughters welcoming committee for all 6th MarDiv arriving at the reunion/hotel
 - ___ Support Ladies Auxiliary's primary fund raising venue, the "Arts and Crafts" table.
 - ___ Help staff/ contribute to/acquire contributions for the "arts-crafts" table. Note, since I am now head of the Ladies Ways and Means Comm, I have inherited "the table" responsibility. I'd like to expand the "table" into a full-scale multi-media display of division history accompanied with a greatly diversified offering of items for sale. Looking forward to working with all of you who have innovative ideas. The revenues from this not only support the Ladies, but moneys are voted on/ donated to the overall 6th MarDiv fund each year as well.
 - ___ Other. Describe below what you'd like to do based on your talents (IT expert, data base guru, etc.) or what you think would be of assistance to the Div. Feel free to caveat any of your support with constraints to the type of help you could provide (i.e., you have young children, can't leave home easily; no vacation time left with job, can't attend reunion because of the distance, etc). _____
